

Position: Deputy Adams County Attorney / Prosecutor

Description: The Adams County Attorney's Office seeks qualified candidates for full-time Deputy County Attorney / Prosecutor position. This position represents the State in criminal cases and initiate and pursue juvenile cases.

The Adams County Attorney's Office prosecutes all criminal actions and proceedings as well as juvenile cases in Adams County. The position handles all levels of criminal complaints and all aspects of the cases and will join experienced prosecutors and gain exposure to all aspects of criminal and juvenile law in a forward thinking office known for developing alternatives to prosecution while ensuring safety for the community and accountability for the offender. The successful candidate must be able to handle a vigorous caseload and desire considerable courtroom experience. The successful candidate must be dependable, focused, and detail-oriented and demonstrate and maintain a high level of professionalism and the ability to communicate effectively with victims, law enforcement, judges, and fellow attorneys. Candidates with a demonstrated commitment to government work will be considered.

Requirements: Graduation from an ABA accredited law school and a license to practice law in Nebraska or be eligible for such license. The successful candidate must be willing to reside in Adams County.

Applicant accepting a job offer must pass a background check.

Salary starts at $78,000 or depending on experience. This position provides work/life balance along with an excellent benefits package which includes paid vacation, sick and holiday leave, retirement, and a full range of insurance benefits.

Adams County is an equal employment opportunity employer.

Send Resume and Cover Letter to

Donna Fegler Daiss
Adams County Attorney
ddaiss@adamscountyne.gov
P.O. Box 71
Hastings, NE 68902-0071